

LGBTQ+ STUDENT TRAVEL RESOURCES

No matter your sexual orientation or gender identity, you deserve to be safe when on the road

OVERALL LGBTQ+ POLICY TALLY MAP

*visit <http://www.lgbtmap.org/equality-maps> for more policy maps

LGBTQ+ POPULATION COVERED BY LAWS

of the LGBTQ+ population lives in states with high overall policy tallies

of the LGBTQ+ population lives in states with medium overall policy tallies

of the LGBTQ+ population lives in states with low overall policy tallies

of the LGBTQ+ population lives in states with negative overall policy tallies

<http://www.lgbtmap.org/equality-maps>

A resource that tracks current LGBTQ+ laws in every state

WEBSITES

<https://www.lgbtcenters.org/>
Locate LGBTQ+ Resource Centers in your area

<https://transequality.org/know-your-rights/airport-security>
Airport Travel Guide

APPS

<https://peoplelikemeapp.com/>
An app that helps you find LGBTQ+ friendly businesses

<https://www.refugerestrooms.org/>
Helps you find gender neutral restrooms in your immediate area

TRAVEL SAFETY CHECKLIST

- Check Hate Crime Laws and Discrimination Protections before you go into a new state
- Go to the bathroom in pairs at gas stations
- Check rooming rules with your school
- If your preferred name does not match your ID or credit cards, have documentation that explains why (Doctor's note, name change petition)
- Hormone medicines need to be prescribed to you